O'Fallon Assist-2-Sell Shows Support for U.S. Troops

The O'Fallon, Mo., Assist-2-Sell office collected donations and put together care packages to send to soldiers in Iraq and Afghanistan.

O'Fallon, MO, February 14, 2008 --(PR.com)-- Some soldiers in Iraq and Afghanistan had a happier holiday thanks to the local Assist-2-Sell office. Doug Howell, Diana Hacker and Jean Howell, owners of Assist-2-Sell Buyer Seller Team, asked O'Fallon residents to support American troops by helping to create holiday care packages. More than 100 households responded by donating hundreds of items, including snacks, toiletries, games, music CDs, movie DVDs and more. The care packages were sent to soldiers in Iraq and Afghanistan in time for Christmas.

"We wanted do something to say 'thank you' to the men and women who are serving our country, and the holidays seemed like a good time to let them know we were thinking about them," said Doug Howell.

Added Diana Hacker, "We were really happy to see so many people from our community come together to show their support for our troops."

If you would like to join Assist-2-Sell and show your support for American troops, visit www.anysoldier.com. This Web site is an easy way to send care packages to soldiers who are overseas.

Assist-2-Sell Buyer Seller Team is owned and operated by Doug Howell, Diana Hacker and Jean Howell. They opened the O'Fallon, Mo., office in July 2002.
